Dear Respected [Clergy],

We are writing in request that you be one of the one thousand Ministers from the national faith community to march with National Action Network to commemorate the 54th anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King's March On Washington. We ask that you stand in solidarity with us to uphold the Social Justice movement in the spirit and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King.

The Ministers March for Justice will begin at 11am on Monday, August 28th, 2017 in remembrance of Dr. Martin Luther King's iconic speech and march on August 28th, 1963. We will ask that in addition to your attendance, you participate in a prayer vigil and commitment ceremony to vow to fight alongside of us for social justice and to restore the role of the faith community in the path to Dr. King's Dream of equal rights.

We will ask clergy to make a concrete commitment to preach messages centered on the Social Justice agenda. National Action Network will provide outlines for litanies and sermons with scriptures for the Ministers to deliver during the weeks leading up to the March. As Dr. King taught us, it is faith that drives these movements. We ask that you will participate in the grassroots efforts to hold Attorney General Sessions accountable in upholding Civil Rights for all people. We have all watched the increase in hate crimes over the past months. We cannot stand by. We must act.

As Rev. Sharpton said 4 years ago, "They call the generation of Dr. King the Moses generation and those out here are now Joshua. But If Joshua does not fight the fights of Moses they're not really Joshua. We saw Dr. King and the Dream cross the Red Sea of apartheid and segregation but we have to cross the Jordan of unequal economic parity, we have to cross the jordan of continued discrimination and mass incarceration we have got to keep on fighting… The dream was not for one generation; the dream goes on until the dream is achieved. We made it this far not because of what we had in our pockets but what we have in our hearts. We thank God for the Dream and we are gonna keep on fighting until the dream is a reality."
