TV8's "Luxury Living" Vail Valley

Watch TV8 Luxury Living

TV8's "Luxury Living" breathes new life into the real estate scene and gives character and personality to each featured individual home. Your property listings have never been better showcased to prospective High Net Worth customers than through TV8's new presentation of the most expensive homes in the area. TV8 provides a hosted journey through some of the most iconic personal residences. Real estate brokers now have a new cutting-edge marketing tool to reach the rich and famous who are seeking to create family memories through second home ownership.

Let TV8 take you and your prospects on a standalone, customized journey, to share the unique story of each mountain residence. This fast-paced presentation focuses on the beauty and story behind each residence to compel viewers and prospective buyers to want more information.

This video tour is designed to put the viewer in the driver's seat so that they feel like they are actually experiencing all the amenities each home has to offer. Brokers can now share these customized videos through an experiential open house presentation designed to enhance marketing campaigns, and delight sellers.

Production Services:
2 Minute Customized Professional Video Production $1,800
