MG Literacy Coaching

One-on-One Multi-sensory Orton-Gillingham Tutoring

Does your child struggle with reading and spelling?

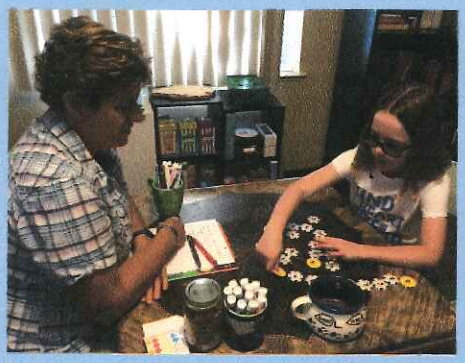
* I use multi-sensory techniques that are individualized to your child's needs.

Does your child have a reading disability?

* Let me help your child succeed with my highly individualized, research-based techniques.

Are you struggling to get your child to a reading tutor?

* If you can't bring your child to my house, I can travel to your child's school before, during, or after school hours



"Reading skills are obviously needed for children to make their way through the world. As an English Literature major, I want to help them achieve that skill and hopefully pass on a love of reading to them, whether in fiction or non-fiction, so the world becomes a bigger place for them to grow."
