SUE DIVINEY NAMED SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER OF FOX DUOPOLY IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Sue Diviney has been named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the FOX-owned duopoly in Washington, D.C., which consists of WTTG FOX 5 and WDCA FOX 5 Plus, announced Jack Abernethy, Chief Executive Officer of FOX Television Stations. In this role, she is responsible for overseeing the stations' business and operations. Diviney assumes this position immediately, reporting directly to Abernethy.

In making the announcement, Abernethy stated, "As an experienced and engaged finance executive, Sue is adept at collaborating with all departments to achieve strategic goals. I look forward to continued growth and innovation under her leadership with our terrific team in DC."

Diviney has served as Vice President of Finance since she joined WTTG/WDCA in 2017. In this role, she handled all financial functions for the duopoly. Prior to that, Diviney spent 15 years with CNN in various roles, including Senior Director of Finance, where she managed financial responsibilities for CNN-US including Programming, Newsgathering, Digital, Election Coverage, and Special Events. A graduate of George Mason University, Diviney holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, as well as an Executive Master of Business Administration degree in International Business from Mercer University. In addition, she is a graduate of the 2020 NAB Broadcast Leadership Training program.

Diviney added, "I am honored for the tremendous opportunity to lead this exceptional team to continued success. As a 30-year resident of the DC area, I understand this market and recognize the importance of providing this community with strong local coverage that often has national significance."

WTTG and WDCA are part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 17 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce over 1,100 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network's national content.