Greenwood, SC – The South Carolina Festival of Flowers is proud to announce the return of the 2026 South Carolina Festival of Flowers, a month-long celebration of art, music, and natural beauty taking place throughout June in Greenwood. This award winning Festival is coordinated by the Greenwood SC Chamber of Commerce.

The festival's main weekend is set for June 4–7, 2026, with activities and experiences scheduled throughout the entire month. Known for its vibrant atmosphere and community engagement, the Festival continues to attract visitors from across the region.

Festival Highlights

The 2026 Festival will feature a variety of returning favorites and signature events, including:

- Topiary Display (June 1 – July 6): Greenwood's iconic larger-than-life topiaries will once again transform Uptown into a living art exhibit.
- Ladies Mix & Mingle (May 21): A popular pre-festival social event celebrating community and connection.
- Blooms & Beats Concert Series (June 5–6): Live music performances in a lively outdoor setting.
- Garden Symposium (June 5): Educational sessions and expert speakers for gardening enthusiasts.
- Garden Tours(June 6): Highlighting local landscapes and creativity.
- Topiaries, Tastings & Tunes (June 6): An evening event combining food, music, and the beauty of the topiary displays.
- Flower Power Fun Run (June 6): Featuring 5K, 5-mile, and 1-mile options for participants of all ages.
- Kidfest (June 6): A family-friendly event with activities and entertainment for children.
- Makers Market & Food Trucks (June 5–6): Local vendors, artisans, and a variety of food options.
- Bee Buzzin' Bike Tour (June 13): A scenic cycling event showcasing Greenwood's charm.

A Month of Community Celebration

"The South Carolina Festival of Flowers continues to be a cornerstone event for our community," said festival organizers. "From the stunning topiaries to live entertainment and family-friendly activities, there is truly something for everyone to enjoy."

The Festival not only celebrates the beauty of Greenwood but also supports local businesses, artists, and organizations while enhancing tourism and community pride.

Visit www.scfestivalofflowers.org for more information or call 864-223-8431.