ON THE SCENE

On the Scene is a column listing community events that runs each Thursday. Items will be edited to conform to Enterprise guidelines. Items must be submitted by email with the information contained in the text of the email. Submission of promotional flyers for upcoming events will not be processed. Items must be submitted at least seven days before the event. The information must contain a street address for the event. Submissions may be emailed to neighbors@hpenews.com

HIGH POINT MUSEUM

• Saturday, Oct. 17, 10 a.m. — 4:30 p.m. Mourning in the Park in the Historical Park. Learn about the change in mourning practices and traditions of the country from Colonial days to the early American republic during and after the Revolution. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Saturday, Oct. 17, 6-7:30 p.m., 15th annual Ghost Stories in the Historical Park. Professional storyteller Peter Turner will tell spooky, but not too scary, tales for the young and old from 6:30 to 7:20 p.m. Snacks, crafts and pumpkin decorating 6-6:30. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Wednesday, Oct. 21, 10 a.m., High Point Historical Society Presents: High Point Public Library at 100 Years. Julie Raynor, High Point Public Library 100th anniversary planning committee coordinator, will discuss the High Point Public Library's service over the past century.

• Saturday, Oct. 24, 10 a.m. — 4 p.m., Historical Gaming — Revolutionary Battle. Join the High Point University Historical Gaming Society for a special wargaming event at the High Point Museum. Command miniatures on detailed gaming tables, play featured battles, enjoy easy-to-learn and quick-to-play system and discuss important moments in America's creation. Free, attendance is limited, email hpmuseum@highpointnc.gov to register.

• Saturday, Oct. 24, 10 a.m. — 4:30 p.m., Board Games in the Historical Park. Costumed interpreters will lead a fun day of board games in the Historical Park. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Saturday, Oct. 31, 10 a.m. — 2 p.m. Let's Craft! Sugar Skull Banner in Little Red Schoolhouse. In celebration of Day of the Dead, make a sugar skull banner in remembrance of family and loved ones who are no longer with us. Sensory-friendly environment (dim lights, calm room, limited people) from 10 a.m. to noon. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Saturday, Oct. 31, 10 a.m. — 2 p.m., Dia de los Muertos. The museum and YWCA Latino Family Center present a learning experience and celebration about the Day of the Dead, a Latin American holiday originating in Mexico. Altar exhibit will be on display Oct. 20 to Nov. 7. Including family entertainment and crafts.

• Saturday, Nov. 7, 10 a.m. — 2 p.m. Let's Craft! Paper Weaving in Little Red Schoolhouse. Learn how to paper weave your own piece of art.

Sensory-friendly environment (dim lights, calm room, limited people) from 10 a.m. to noon. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Saturday, Nov. 14, Noon — 4 p.m., Indigenous Cooking in the Historical Park. Costumed interpreters will cook dishes and discuss historic methods of native cooking. Food samples are unavailable to the public.

Demonstration only. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Wednesday, Nov. 18, 10 a.m., High Point Historical Society Presents: America's Hometown Movie Theaters. Benita VanWinkle will discuss the museum's newest exhibit, "Please Remain Standing," which features highlights from her new book showcasing a more-than-40-year photographic journey capturing historic American movie theaters and drive-ins. Free and open to the public. Light refreshments will provided. Join the museum for the official opening of the exhibit Thursday, Nov. 19.

• Saturday, Nov. 21, Noon — 4 p.m. Open Hearth Cooking Demonstration in the Historical Park. Learn how early Americans prepared and cooked for large dinner parties like what most of us experience during Thanksgiving. Food samples are unavailable to the public. Demonstration only. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

• Saturday, Nov. 28, 10 a.m. — 2 p.m. Let's Craft! Fall Leaf Chalk Art in Little Red Schoolhouse. Sensory-friendly environment (dim lights, calm room, limited people) from 10 a.m. to noon. Free, all ages, drop-in event.

For more information on these and other events call 336-885-1859 or visit www.highpointmuseum.org

HISTORICAL MARKER

The Daughters of the American Revolution will unveil a new historical marker at 3 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 24, along Penny Road at Deep River Friends Meeting to mark the site where British Gen. Charles Cornwallis and his forces camped on their way to what became known as the Battle of Guilford Courthouse during the Revolutionary War.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Civic Voices, a leadership workshop aimed at area nonprofit, business and community leaders, will be held at Congdon Yards, 410 W. English Road, Oct. 28-29. Participants will take part in a county budget-and-tax simulation, issue-focused advocacy roundtables and more. Registration is $35. Register at https://bit.ly/4s0XpHT. Contact Brian Cockman at brian@onesectoronevoice.org if the registration fee is a barrier to participation.

VETERANS PARADE

The High Point Central High School Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) will be participating in the 2026 Greensboro Veterans Parade on Saturday, Nov. 7, from noon to 2 p.m. The parade is expected to begin at the corner of North Elm Street and East Lindsay Street, continue down Elm Street to East Friendly Avenue, and end at Church Street. The event is described as featuring local high-school JROTC units, marching bands, veterans, military organizations and military vehicles.

LUNG CANCER SURVIVORS

LiveLung, a nonprofit cancer support organization, will host a special meeting to celebrate Lung Cancer Awareness Month with Triad lung cancer patients on Monday, Nov. 9. The luncheon is free for lung cancer survivors and their caretakers and will include merchandise giveaways and a visit with LiveLung founder Dusty Donaldson, a 21-year cancer survivor, as well as the LiveLung Skan Van. The event will be held at Steak Street, 3915 Sedgebrook St., High Point, at noon. Attendees must register and place their orders at least 48 hours in advance at https://bit.ly/4dyMQ8T.

NAACP HOUSING SUMMIT

The NAACP High Point Branch will host its inaugural Economic Development and Housing Equity Summit Nov. 20-21 at the Loft at Congdon Yards, 400 W. English Road. The theme is "Building Equity: Empowering CommunitiesT hrough Opportunity and Access." More than 200 participants, including developers, policymakers, business leaders, housing professionals, workforce organizations and local residents, will address solutions to housing that promote fairness, expand access and strengthen community well-being. For more information and sponsorship opportunities, contact Richard Fuqua at rfuqua1@outlook.com.

TOY DRIVE

The High Point Housing Authority's annual Holiday Toy Drive is currently underway. The drive ensures that housing authority youth experience the joy of receiving a gift during the holiday.

Drop unwrapped toys or monetary donations at the housing authority office at 500 E. Russell Ave., High Point, by Friday, Dec. 2. Monetary donations can be made via Cash App at $HPHAELBF, and checks should be made payable to Empowering Lives and Building Foundations Inc., ATTN: Back to School, P.O. Box 1779, High Point, N.C. 27261. For information call 336-887-2661.

TRIAD COIN CLUB

The Triad Coin Club, based in High Point, meets at 7 p.m. the fourth Tuesday of each month, January through November, at Spring Hill United Methodist Church on Lexington Avenue in High Point. Doors to the fellowship hall open at 6:30 p.m. During the meeting, raffles and auctions will be held.

For more information, contact Robert Ward by phone at 336-862-0802 after 6 p.m. or by text anytime.