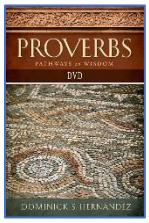
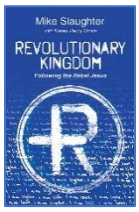
There are one, two, or three short clips per topic: alertness, appearances, blessings, dishonesty, forgiveness, grace, materialism, money, problems, purity, respect, selfishness, trust, uncertainty, unity, values, and wisdom. The accompanying guide provides a Bible verse and a discussion question for each segment.



PROVERBS: PATHWAYS TO WISDOM (116112) Author: Hernandez, Dominick. There is a lot of talk these days about “the good life.” It’s not a new topic—the book of Proverbs talked about just that. Its sayings and bits of wisdom were collected to make the lives of people just like us run a little more smoothly. In this four-session DVD study, Dominick Hernandez explores the biblical book’s well-known verses and prevalent themes in a manner that offers various interpretations, opening the way for us to see how they apply to our modern world. You’ll learn about the authorship, genre, and historical setting for each of these verses, which will broaden your understanding and bring more meaning to familiar passages. Sessions: 1) Reading the proverbs wisely (9 min.); 2) Presenting the pathways (8 min.); 3) Practical and personal pathways (10 min.); 4) Wisdom in practice – Proverbs 31 (8 min.). Includes leader’s guide and paperback book. CLOSED CAPTIONED. 35 Minutes.



REVOLUTIONARY KINGDOM: FOLLOWING THE REBEL JESUS (118082) Author: Slaughter, Mike. In this six-session DVD study, Mike Slaughter shares that to be considered true disciples of Christ we must exchange comfortable cultural worldviews and values for the radical requirements of living out the Kingdom in the here and now. It’s when we get serious about God’s call that we, too, live revolutionary, world-changing lives. Sessions: 1) The gospel of the Kingdom of God (10 min.); 2) The counterculture Kingdom community (10 min.); 3) Revolutionary authority (11 min.); 4) Kingdom politics (11 min.); 5) Kingdom economy (11 min.); 6) The 'all in' (11 min.).
