Religious Exploration for Children & Teens

Shoreline UU is committed to supporting active and engaging Religious Exploration for children and teens. We offer weekly classes for nursery, pre-school, and elementary school age children. The middle school age group meets on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Sundays. Elementary and middle school ages begin with families in the sanctuary, before heading to their classes. The high school youth group meets every other week on Sunday afternoons. All children and teens may stay for the full worship service. Some worship services are multi-generational. If you would like to learn more about the RE program, contact Chris Pollina, Director of Religious Exploration.

Sharing Joys & Sorrows

If you would like to have a joy or a sorrow shared during the Sunday Worship Service, either with or without your name, you are welcome to use the link on the website. The Joys & Sorrows button is on the Communications Center tab and on the Homepage.

Congregational Connections

Do you have a special event this month? A birthday, anniversary, trip, or other celebration? Feel free to write it on the Celebration board in the Threadgill Room, where we gather before and after church. This is a great way to build community by sharing what is happening in your life. Let's celebrate together!
