

Nicolette Lopez is a Vice President and Private Credit Attorney at Voya Investment Management. She is responsible for advising the Private Credit Team on numerous types of domestic and international private placement transactions, including corporate, infrastructure, project finance, and structured financings. Prior to joining Voya, Nicolette was an attorney at MetLife Investment Management, where she provided counsel on private placements and other types of investments, as well as compliance matters. Before that, she practiced as a public finance attorney at Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP, representing issuers, underwriters, and credit enhancers in revenue bond financings. Nicolette earned a JD from Fordham University School of Law and a BS, magna cum laude, from Leonard N. Stern School of Business at New York University. She is admitted to practice in both New York and New Jersey, and is a fellow of the American College of Investment Counsel and a member of its Transaction Process Management Committee.
