WIVB-TV/WNLO-TV NAMES JOSH ROY NEWS DIRECTOR

July 27, 2023 – WIVB-TV/WNLO-TV has named Josh Roy, News Director for the Nexstar Media Inc. stations in Buffalo, New York.

Mr. Roy is a native of Tonawanda, NY. He is a 20-year veteran of journalism at WIVB, where he started as a photojournalist, covering many important news stories including Pope Francis' visit to the U.S., Presidential visits, Flight 3407, and The October Surprise Storm, to name a few. He was promoted to News Operations Manager, Assistant News Director and Acting News Director. His work has earned him many accolades including Emmy Awards, AP Awards, and Murrow Awards.

Mr. Roy will report to WIVB-TV/WNLO-TV Vice President and General Manager, Joe Abouzeid. "Josh is a seasoned journalist with decades of experience at News 4. He is a terrific leader who will help the News 4 team provide even more great news coverage to the viewers of Western New York." stated Mr. Abouzeid.

Commenting on his promotion as News Director, Mr. Roy said, "I'm honored to lead the newsroom that I've been part of for the last 20 years. We have some of the best journalists in the business, and I'm so proud of the work we've done and look forward to what we'll accomplish in the future. "

Josh Roy, his wife Andrea, and their two children live in Lancaster, NY.

WIVB-TV / WNLO-TV are the CBS and CW affiliates in Buffalo, NY, and the home of News 4 Buffalo. Serving the community with eleven hours of news every weekday, and with more total viewers than the other market newscasts - News 4 Buffalo is Western New York's News Leader.

Nexstar and WIVB/WNLO have an uncompromising commitment to localism, to bring services and value to consumers and advertisers. We're 4 Buffalo!
