Levy Called as Education Executive/Superintendent of Ohio Lutheran Schools

Nicole Levy has received the call to serve as Education Executive/Superintendent of Ohio Lutheran Schools from the Ohio District Board of Directors. The board unanimously extended the call on Thursday, June 26, 2025.

Levy serves as Executive Director of Luther Memorial School in Cleveland. With more than 10 years of experience as a school administrator, Levy is the most senior school administrator among the Ohio Lutheran schools.

Levy did her undergraduate of Concordia University Ann Arbor. She also holds a Masters of School Administration from Cleveland State University.

Levy has served two interim roles for the Ohio District this past year. As a Regional Principal she has shared her expertise and experience with fellow school administrators, covering questions and emergencies usually handled by the Education Executive. At the same time, Levy has led the National Lutheran School Accreditation process for the district.
