CBS Philly

Please join me in welcoming Richard Kiss to CBS Philadelphia as Assistant News Director. Rich joins us from across the street at NBC 10 where he has been an executive producer for nearly 10 years – overseeing multiple dayparts during this time.

Rich is an award-winning journalist with over 20 years in local news. Across the street, he launched the redesign of the NBC10 morning show and has won three Regional Emmys for Best Morning Newscast. He also launched their OTT news "The Line Up".

Before coming to Philadelphia, Richard worked as an executive producer at News 12 New Jersey and WDSU in New Orleans. He also worked as a producer at KHOG in Fayetteville Arkansas. During his career, he's covered several stories including Hurricane Katrina and Superstorm Sandy.

He has won 4 Emmys overall, including one for Best Sports Show . He's a 2x NBC Gem Award winner and 3x New Orleans Press Club Award Winner.

Richard received a Bachelor's Degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. He lives in Paoli, Chester County with his wife, Michele and their 3 children.

Rich is funny, smart and affable. He brings a "lead by example" approach and is thrilled to be making the jump: "I am excited to join the team of talented journalists at CBS Philly. I can't wait to get to work and continue telling the stories of the people who live in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware."

Rich is going to take some time with his family, even head south to Disney! He will come back ready to go, starting here at CBS Philadelphia on August 15th.
