
Join OLLI on a day trip to the Newport Mansions…

The Breakers and Marble House with lunch at The Elms Carriage House

Thursday, December 10

Cost: $75

Enjoy the festive holiday décor at two of Newport's celebrated mansions: The Breakers and Marble House. Built during the 1890s, these two gilded-age summer homes and landscapes of the Vanderbilt family are now protected and maintained by the Preservation Society of Newport County. They allow the public the opportunity to connect and learn about a nation's architectural heritage and open windows to another age.

Tours. OLLI members will enjoy a self-guided tour of the mansions. An audio tour app is available for download for those with smart devices (please bring headphones or earbuds); printed scripts are also provided. Breakers will be the first stop at 10:00 a.m. followed by the Marble House at 1:30 p.m. (with lunch in between). Members will have approximately 90-minutes at each location to explore the various rooms, artwork, and grounds.

Lunch. Lunch will be provided at the newly restored Carriage House at The Elms, on the mansion grounds overlooking the historic Elms gardens. Please select one starter and one entrée on the registration form below. All entrées are served with side of mixed greens.

Departure information: A charter bus from Yankee Line Company will depart from the West Garage on the UMass Boston campus at 7:30 a.m. A second pick-up/drop-off location with be at the old Lombardo's/Vincent's Night Club parking lot in Randolph (at approx. 8:00 a.m.) Deadline to register is Tuesday, December 1. Nonmembers/guests may be able to sign up if space remains a week prior to the trip. Bus will return to Randolph at approximately 4:30 p.m. and UMass Boston at 5:00 p.m.
