The Quest program is a one-day education summit for Latino/Minority High School students (grades 10-12) that helps students bridge the gap between high school and college. Students will have the opportunity to engage with role models in the community who have overcome similar barriers to success, and receive the following benefits:

- Build confidence and self-sufficiency
- Gain professional development
- Learn best practices for applying to and financing college
- Discover the many resources available for educational & professional pursuits

The summit is FREE of charge and includes continental breakfast and lunch. Transportation available to groups & schools only.
