Everyone –

Great news!

TRAM ANH NGUYEN has been hired as Morning Content Manager of "Today in St. Louis."

Tram Anh is coming to us from KTVI – Fox2 – having spent the last 20 years (2001 to present) as Supervising Producer/Producer of the 6am hour of "The Power of 2." Along the way, she picked up 3 Emmys for "Best Morning Newscast" (2010, 2012, 2015). She's a big reason this show is number one in the time period. That makes it all the more exciting to welcome Tram Anh to the 5 On Your Side team.

This was a big decision for Tram Anh to jump to the competition – and speaks to our momentum.

Before Fox2, Tram Anh produced mornings in central Illinois (WAND, Decatur) after getting her start at KSDK as a production assistant (1997-1998).

Her journalism degree is from Webster University; Tram Anh is also fluent in Vietnamese.

Her first day is Monday, February 8th – and the plan is for Tram Anh to work inside the station. She will work closely with Senior Producer Megan Mays, who I must recognize for going above and beyond to lead the broadcast for the past 8 months. Things are headed in the right direction, in large part thanks to Megan.

Please join me in giving your full support to Tram Ahn, Megan and the rest of the TISL team as they work together to overtake mornings and rise up to greater heights than ever before.
