AMBER EIKEL NAMED SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER OF FOX DUOPOLY IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE – Amber Eikel has been named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the FOX-owned duopoly in Seattle, which consists of KCPQ Q13 FOX and KZJO JOE tv, announced Jack Abernethy, Chief Executive Officer of FOX Television Stations. In this role, she is responsible for overseeing the stations' business and operations. Eikel assumes this position immediately, reporting directly to Abernethy.

In making the announcement, Abernethy stated, "I am delighted to welcome Amber, one of our strongest news directors, to the General Manager team. Her knowledge of the market and extensive local news experience will certainly be an asset in continuing to grow and lead the Seattle stations."

Most recently, Eikel has served as Vice President and News Director for KTVU/ KICU, the FOX-owned duopoly in San Francisco, since 2017. Prior to that, she was the duopoly's Assistant News Director. Previously, Eikel held the position of executive producer at KIRO in Seattle, WA, and before that, KTNV in Las Vegas, NV. Earlier in her career, she served as a senior producer for WTMJ in Milwaukee, WI. Eikel began her career as a producer, executive producer, and interim news director for KMIR in Palm Springs, CA.

Eikel added, "I am excited to return to Seattle, a city has always held a special place in my heart because it feels like home. I look forward to leading the exceptional team at FOX 13, as we continue the station's unwavering commitment to serving the vibrant communities of the Pacific Northwest."

KCPQ and KZJO are part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 17 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce over 1,000 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network's national content.
