SHEILA OLIVER NAMED SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER OF FOX DUOPOLY IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO – Sheila Oliver has been named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the FOX-owned duopoly in Chicago, which consists of WFLD FOX 32 and WPWR My50, announced Jack Abernethy, Chief Executive Officer of FOX Television Stations. In this role, she is responsible for overseeing the stations' business and operations. Oliver assumes this position immediately, reporting directly to Abernethy.

In making the announcement, Abernethy stated, "Sheila is a FOX Television Stations veteran of both news and sales who leads with her Midwestern charm so she is the perfect choice to elevate FOX Chicago to the next level."

Oliver has been with the FOX Television Stations since 2002. Most recently, she has spent 2 years as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of KCPQ FOX 13 and KZJO JOEtv, the FOX-owned duopoly in Seattle. Prior to that, Oliver spent six years as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of KMSP FOX 9 and WFTC FOX 9+, the FOX-owned duopoly in Minneapolis, and before that, served as the duopoly's Vice President of Sales for over 10 years. Previously, she served as the Vice President and General Sales Manager for KSAZ and KUTP, the FOX duopoly in Phoenix. Earlier in her career, Oliver was a General Manager for WTVR in Richmond, VA and WCGV/WVTV in Milwaukee, WI. She began her career in broadcasting at WUPW in Toledo, OH and 97.9 WJLB FM in Detroit. Oliver holds Bachelor of Arts degrees in both French and Telecommunications from Michigan State University.

Oliver added, "I am beyond thrilled to be given the opportunity to head up the team at WFLD and WPWR and to return to my Midwest roots. Chicago is a great media market and a tremendous sports town – a city that is vibrant with culture and diversity. I will always look back with fondness on my time with the FOX team in Seattle and I look forward to cheering them on as they continue to build upon the momentum and success of our time together."

WFLD and WPWR are part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 17 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce nearly 1,000 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network's national content.
