Subject: WAVE Names News Director

WAVE Team:

I am excited to announce Matt Kummer will be WAVE's next News Director.

Matt comes to us from our station in Knoxville (WVLT). Matt started in the business as a reporter before moving to a producing role in Detroit and later to Green Bay, Indianapolis, and Minneapolis. He served as News Director at Gray's WBAY in Green Bay for ten years before he accepted the News Director position in Knoxville.

Matt and his wife Nikki own a home in Louisville where Nikki is based as a flight attendant. Matt knows the Louisville market well.

A start date will be determined as the recruiting for Matt's replacement in Knoxville takes shape.

Matt is copied here if you would like to say hello!

Welcome to WAVE Matt!

John
