Wanted to update you. Always so thankful you are there for advice/help.

Much appreciated!

I start my new job tomorrow (Monday).

I'm going to be the head of Marketing for ClearSight LASIK and 43Vision. a local company that's very much in growth mode.

I'm a little sad I'm leaving the business after 30 years, but I'm also really excited. This is a cool opportunity and will be a fun challenge for me.

And we get to stay in OKC!!! That was an answer to prayers.

Talk soon!

Todd
