On behalf of Jim Rose ….

Team,

Just announced to the newsroom and department heads that Pete Saiers will be leaving us to become news director for KTLA in Los Angeles. While difficult news to share, the new role does return him to his home state and his family.

Very grateful for Pete's leadership at a time when our newsroom was managing and covering several crises – the newsroom could not have been in better hands. Bottom line – I am a fan of Pete's and wish him all the best.

Pete's last day will be April 2nd and Laura Evans will be interim news director until a permanent successor is named.

We will post the position shortly and will be conducting a national search. If you have any candidate recommendations, feel free to send them my way.

Jim
