The One to Four Residential Contract
3 hrs. CE, course #06161

The purpose of this course is to familiarize the real estate licensee with the paragraphs within the One to Four Residential Contract. This discussion takes a closer look into common errors, the meaning and use of each paragraph, and how to properly fill out the contract. After this course, participants will leave with a better understanding of the One to Four Residential Contract, commonly used addenda with the One to Four Residential Contract and the impact of the various provisions. The panelists of the Contract course do not provide legal advice only best practices for the purpose of this course.
