GLENN BERK NAMED SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER OF WITI FOX 6 MILWAUKEE

Chuck Steinmetz to Retire After 27 Years at the Station

MILWAUKEE – Glenn Berk has been named Senior Vice President and General Manager of WITI FOX 6 Milwaukee, announced Jack Abernethy, Chief Executive Officer of FOX Television Stations. In this role, he is responsible for overseeing the stations' business and operations. Berk assumes this position in August, reporting directly to Abernethy. The current Senior Vice President and General Manager of station, Chuck Steinmetz, who has been with FOX 6 for 27 years, announced his retirement today.

In making the announcement, Abernethy stated, "We would like to thank Chuck for his dedication to FOX 6 and congratulate him on a seasoned career of consistent success. Over the past twenty years with FTS, Glenn has proven himself to be a valuable asset to the FTS sales team. He is a great example of the depth of our bench and promoting talented people from within our group. I know that his experience and drive will ensure the continued success of this important television station."

Steinmetz has been with FOX 6 Milwaukee since 1996. Most recently, he has served as Senior Vice President and General Manager since 2001, after his promotion from Vice President and General Sales Manager, and before that, Local Sales Manager. Previously, Steinmetz was National Sales Manager for KTVX in Salt Lake City, UT. Prior to that, he spent over six years as an Account Executive and Regional Sales Manager for KMSP, the FOX-owned station in Minneapolis. Steinmetz began his career as an Account Executive for WCGV Television in Milwaukee. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, he holds a Bachelors degree in Communications, Business, Accounting and Marketing.

Steinmetz added, "Over the last 36 years I have worked with some of the best and most talented people this industry has to offer. Many of them at WITI FOX6. My sincere thank you to everyone at the station who work so hard every day to make a difference. I couldn't be more pleased to pass the baton to Glenn, who will continue the growth of FOX 6 and take the team to new heights."

Berk has been with the FOX Television Stations for over twenty years. Most recently, he has spent the last nine years as Vice President and General Sales Manager for the FOX-owned duopoly in Chicago, WFLD/WPWR. Prior to that, Berk was Vice President and General Sales Manager for WHBQ FOX 13 Memphis, when it was a FOX-owned station. Previously, he served as National Sales Manager for WTXF FOX 29 Philadelphia. Before that, he was an Account Executive for FOX Stations Sales in New York where he began as a Sales Trainee in 2002. He began his career as a Program Analyst for HRP in New York. A graduate of the University of Missouri, Berk holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science.

“I’m incredibly excited for the tremendous opportunity to lead such a talented team at WITI. As a native Midwesterner, I understand what Milwaukeeans value and cannot wait to begin immersing myself in this community. I’m grateful for my time at WFLD which fully prepared me for such a perfect fit in Milwaukee,” said Berk.

WITI FOX 6 is part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 17 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce nearly 1,000 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network’s national content.
