

KATHLEEN K. BARTON
Director, Benefits
Kraft Heinz Foods Company

Kathi Barton currently heads up the Benefits Department at Kraft Heinz and is responsible for the design, implementation and administration of all benefits for Kraft Heinz's 43,000 employees and over 40,000 retirees across the Globe. She has 20 plus years of experience working in the human resources and benefits field – 19 of which have been with Kraft Heinz. During her tenure, Kathi has held a variety of different positions within the Benefits Department, encompassing plan management, wellness, global benefits, the outsourcing of benefits administration and the transition to Private Healthcare Exchanges for both actives and retirees of Kraft Heinz. Prior to joining Kraft Heinz, Kathi held various positions within the Operations and Human Resources functions at Harris Bank and Keebler Company. Kathi received her bachelor's degree in business and French from Northern Illinois University and her MBA from DePaul University, Chicago.