Rector's Reflections

Culture of Complaint

The broken world around us continually fosters a culture of complaint. From pithy quips in the comment section of posts, to the malicious back-biting and gossip that can rend families and fellowships, complaining has become one of the countless self-appointed, self-anointed kings of our culture. And sometimes I fear it reigns supreme, even in Christ's One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. If I were to calculate what percentage of my interaction with parishioners is spent fielding complaints – some of them unnecessary, a lot of them unhelpful, and far too many of them unchristian – I think we'd all be disappointed. So, instead of calculating that…why don't we just do something different? Something better!

In fact, I think it's become necessary. Because amidst the culture of complaint, real concerns tend to go unheard and unheeded. Like "The Boy Who Cried Wolf," there's no place in the cacophony of complaint for discerning those genuine spiritual dangers that can beset a church like our beloved St. Thomas. Of course, there are things about our worship that you don't prefer - there are things about it that don't meet my preferences either. Yes, there are typos in our bulletin - there are also typos in some of my favorite books. I'd bet there's even one in this article. But as members a community…a family…the Living Body of Christ…we're called to bear each other's burdens. Ours is a fellowship that demands our love of neighbor and enemy alike. So, the idea of choosing to make enemies of our brothers and sisters by nitpicking their mistakes or oversights, shouldn't be allowed to even find rest amongst us…let alone take up residence.

If all we want is space to air our individual (and never-ending) lists of grievances, there's a whole wide world ready to welcome us with open and greedy arms. But for the Church to dys-function in the same way as the broken world around us makes no logical sense, and even less sense theo-logically. There is a better way! And, by God's grace, I'm going to take it. I'm done participating in the culture of complaint. More than that, I'm begging you to join me. Together, in Christ, we can foster the uniquely Christian Culture of Grace and Mercy and Mutual Love…without surrendering the basic human need to be heard.

Your Servant in Christ,
Fr. Andy

Associate/Youth Ministers Musings

Hello friends . . . grace and peace,

A friend of mine who is the rector of a huge Episcopal church down in North Carolina wrote the following & it seemed timely since we're coming into this season of Halloween. Enjoy! -Aran-

Around the end of October, there will be crowds of children, young & old, roaming through my neighborhood in costume asking for candy because of that most glorious of holidays, Halloween.

I grew up thinking Halloween was great (free candy, costumes, quasi-acceptable vandalism – what's not to love), began follow Jesus & was taught that it was bad, but now believe it's great again. In fact I would even go far as to say, that of all the civic holidays we observe in this country, Halloween might be the one that is, in fact, the most Godly. Now before you chuck a razor blade laden apple at me, I've got two reasons for my thesis.

First, Halloween is all about community & relational connection. Many of the major holidays in our country emphasize either family/couple togetherness (Christmas, Thanksgiving, Valentine's) or travel/parties (Labor & Memorial Day). In observance, these holidays most often exist as closed-door events, where only a few are invited to participate in the festivities.

But not so with Halloween! It's all about open doors where everybody is invited to join in. In fact, it's the one time of year when EVERYBODY spills out onto the streets of their communities & mingles with their neighbors. On Halloween the social pressure of the culture is not in the direction of individualism, but actually toward connection.

Furthermore, on this night I'm actually encouraged to bang on my neighbors' door & engage them. Sure, it all under the pretext of my 4-year-old getting a piece of candy, but on this evening, I am welcomed & encouraged to come by in order to greet others face to face. This kind of intentional connection is close to heart of God & deeply redemptive for people in the USA who feel increasingly lonely in their search for life, liberty & the pursuit of happiness.

Second, Halloween welcomes public creativity & art making. What other time in public life do so many people put their own hand-made art on display for the enjoyment of their neighbors? I can't think of one. Indeed, what is the whole Jack-O-Lantern phenomenon if not a huge public art party? Whether you're going traditional, creative, or avant-garde at Halloween, people abandon the insidious "I'm no artist" lie & get out there making art with a gourd & a kitchen knife.

Then, they frame & light their art for display in order to bless strangers. Because, who sees the Jack-O-Lantern? Not you. It's the children who come to your door. At Halloween we make art again, not just for ourselves, but also for the enjoyment of others! This sort of risk taking & selfless giving is close to heart of God. It can change the people who practice it.

There are certainly ways it misses the point, but so do all the holidays we celebrate. Halloween is at least getting at some redemptive things in its practice that others don't even consider in their theory. Maybe Christians don't need an alternative to this holiday as much as we need to see where it grasps things right about God already.

peace to you

CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

We're off to the races!
In the last four weeks, the Heirs have been learning about God's Kingdom: how we choose to participate, how that impacts our lives, and what we do when we stray off of God's path. Sunday mornings, we have been exploring the Lord's Prayer, why it matters, and what it means when we pray it.

Wednesday evenings combine a meal, chapel time, movement activities, and lessons that help us grow in faith. Sunday mornings start with a mini dance party and move into interactive lessons that focus on our liturgy.

Thank you for everyone's support and prayers for this ministry and our children! We have really enjoyed Fr. Andy's teachings during chapel time and the participation of our Wednesday evening guests. Thank you for providing a meal and sharing it with us! If you haven't already, please consider signing up to join us. The sign-up sheet is located on the children's bulletin board found in the hall outside of the nursery.

If the Holy Spirit is calling you to contribute, please find our WISH LIST for our classroom and future activities on Amazon. (https://www.amazon.com/registries/gl/guest-view/2QAJ2SKYEGXTE)

SCAN ME for WISH LIST

We also ask for your continued prayers.

St. Thomas Acolyte Opportunity
If you or one of your children have an interest in serving St. Thomas as an Acolyte, we would love to have you. As you know, Acolytes serve as an important part of the 10:00 service every Sunday. It is very rewarding and is a great way to serve God and our St. Thomas family. If you or a family member have an interest in serving in this ministry, please reach out to Wade, Deacon Lisa, Martina or contact the church office. Thank you!

Please help by occasionally hosting Coffee Hour after the 10AM service.
We will train you! Sign up is in the Parish Hall. If you have questions please call, Bev Johnston (920)729-6320.

"Where Faith Meets Life: St. Thomas Adult Sunday School" Conversations on Scripture, Film & Faith -- Christians have always gathered around stories: the stories of Scripture and the stories that help us make sense of human experience. This year, our Adult Sunday School ministry will offer two complementary opportunities for learning and reflection. Through Conversations on Scripture, we will engage the weekly lectionary texts, listening together for God's promises, challenges, and invitations. Jill Beverlin and other class participants will take turns leading these sessions. At other times, we will explore selected films as modern parables, considering how themes of hope, reconciliation, courage, justice, love, and redemption echo the deeper story of God's work in the world. Fr. Aran will be the primary leader of these sessions. Both experiences invite us into the same practice: paying attention. Whether we are reflecting on a Gospel text or a film scene, we seek to ask where God might be speaking, challenging, comforting, and calling us today. Join us as we gather to learn, reflect, and grow together in faith. Classes will begin Sept. 20th; 9-9:45am in the Lounge. A schedule will be shared with participants at that time. If you have questions, please contact Jill or Fr. Aran.

Chosen Bible Study Group
The Chosen/Bible Study Group will be starting again after our summer break! We will begin meeting on Thursday, October 1st. Most of us gather for morning prayer at 9:30 in the chapel. After prayer we go to the St. Thomas Lounge for our group meeting. We are going to start over with The Chosen Season 1 because we find some time, we catch things we didn't see when we first watched it. Then after the episode we will be watching the Biblical Round Table Discussion where the biblical/historical consultants discuss the episode we just viewed. We will be viewing and discussing a new episode each week. We are looking forward to starting again after our summer and new members are always welcome to join our group at any time. CHRISTIAN WRITERS GROUP

Christian Writers group meets at St. Thomas on the first Monday of the month from 7-9 pm. The group of 16-18 members come for a variety of reasons. Some publish books that sold nationwide. Some of us self-publish, usually on Amazon, and find the monthly training in improving writing skills stimulating. Others come for training in writing family stories, newspaper articles, letters, or just for the fellowship. Members come from a variety of communities and the meetings have been held at St. Thomas for many years because of its central location. You are welcome to attend a meeting if you are improving your writing skills. For more information contact Jim Dickson at Jimdick777@aol.com or 920-725-8237.

NEW! EVANGELISM GROUP STARTED AT ST. THOMAS!

Most of us know that to be a Christian is to be an evangelist. By our everyday words and actions, we proclaim the Gospel, both by what we decide to do and say, or what we avoid saying or doing. Our every word and deed reflect our relationship with God… or lack thereof. How can we become effective evangelists, not as something we do, but as part of who we are in Christ? Please continue praying for the work of the Spirit among us, and come and join the conversation. Our next meeting will be November 16, 7pm. If you need more information, contact Theresa or Fr. Andy anytime. We hope to see you there! Your servant in Christ, Theresa

DOUBLE PORTION SOUP KITCHEN AND PANTRY

We have a great deal to be thankful for as we enter this holiday season. We continue to welcome new guests at our meal service and strive to serve everyone a warm meal and a friendly smile that nourish both body and soul.

Our desserts and free bakery items have been replenished now that we have added generous donations from Uncle Mike's Food Emporium to our menu! During this time of Thanksgiving, please consider stopping by Uncle Mike's Food Emporium or Panera Bread, both in Appleton, to buy your holiday pastries and thank them for their weekly generosity and support.

Thanks to all those who have donated week after week to keep us well stocked through the summer months. Our guests are grateful and appreciate the chance to stretch their grocery dollars and their monthly budget.

We are grateful for our "Secret Pantry Angels" who have been helping us keep our pantry shelves stocked, which has been a formidable challenge this fall. Pantry donations tend to lessen during the holiday and winter season as people focus on larger holiday-oriented donations at year end, so pantry donations are critical to us during this time of year. Please consider a donation to our pantry, either financial or with grocery items, to help us keep our shelves stocked. Our greatest needs are for hearty soups, chili, baked beans, condiments, jam, ramen noodles, canned meats, pasta sauce, canned pasta, laundry detergent pods (we distribute these in baggies of 4 at a time), oatmeal, shampoo, and toilet paper. Donations may be left on the kitchen island of the St. Thomas Church kitchen.

Lastly, we are grateful to all of the volunteers who make Double Portion Soup Kitchen and Pantry possible every week. This "family" of volunteers rises to the occasion on every opportunity to make each meal service a blessing for our guests, and to ensure that the pantry is available for all those who use it regularly. These are our community's everyday superheroes. We welcome all who want to join our volunteer crew, either weekly or monthly. We certainly could use the help! If you are interested, please contact Melanie Miller at doubleportionsoupkitchen@gmail.com for more information.

Happy Thanksgiving to all! Through your generous gifts of time, talent and treasure, our community meal experience is a warm and welcoming respite for our neighbors and friends.

Our As we enter the cooler, fall months of the year, Double Portion Soup Kitchen continues to welcome new guests to our lunch service every week. In addition to a freshly made meal, we are thankful to have a selection of bakery items to offer for guests to take home each week donated by our local Panera Bread. Every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, fresh meals are prepared for Double Portion by several groups of cooks who generously share their time and talent, including our weekly volunteer cooks and sous chefs, our Home Cooks, and St. Patrick's Catholic Church. All this is possible thanks to the generous contributions from private donors and the dedicated support of our Double Portion partners: St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Calvary Bible Church, and St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

While our pantry has benefited from some additional items collected during the tornado recovery, our shelves will soon be empty when it comes to certain high demand items: canned meats like chicken, ham and spam; hearty soups; beef stew; corned beef hash; crackers; ramen noodles; condiments like jam/jelly, mustard, ketchup, and salad dressings; and hygiene items like toilet paper, facial tissue, shampoo, body soap, toothpaste, and deodorant. Thank you to those who have kept us stocked over the summer months. Please consider a donation this fall to help keep us stocked and able to serve this larger group of guests. Donations may be left at the kitchen island of St. Thomas kitchen marked for Double Portion Pantry.

We are also pleased to welcome a few new volunteers this fall and encourage anyone who is looking for a meaningful way to give to our community to join us. Volunteers may help weekly or monthly, depending on what fits their schedule best. Volunteers are especially needed for Mondays or Thursdays from 10am to 1pm. Please contact Melanie Miller at doubleportionsoupkitchen@gmail.com for more information.

Thank you so much for your continued support of this important local ministry. In the hands of our dedicated volunteers, your generosity and compassion spread joy in our community and bring a welcome respite to the lives of our neighbors.

MOTHERS' MERCY HOME PARTNERSHIP — Holidays Full of Ideas and Experiences

Report by Kerstin Wientzek, Annette Olker, Stephan Zaschel and Undine Kaeppel

Holidays at the Mothers' Mercy Home – that means above all: having time, trying things out, laughing together and discovering new things. During the August 2026 holidays, the Chica team also provided a varied program that focused on creativity, movement and a lot of curiosity.

Marble runs and boxes were made of cardboard, stories became pictures, tangram puzzles and games demanded brains and skill. The children were able to paint, cut, glue and experiment with very different materials. It was not about doing something "right" – but about developing one's own ideas and giving them shape.

Creative work was also done in the sewing workshop: new things were created from used materials, and for a school project, T-shirts were dyed in bright spiral patterns using the tie-and-dye technique. Even simple cork coasters were given a completely new look with napkin technology. With imagination and little material, an astonishing amount can be designed.

Of course, exercise and shared experiences are also part of the holidays. Long walks, a trip to a small water park and support for school projects provided variety.

Finally, a very special highlight awaited 28 young people: Together they went to the Museum of Illusions in Nairobi. Suddenly, nothing was as it seemed. Optical illusions, amazing perspectives and rooms in which gravity seemed to be suspended made the young people marvel, laugh and try things out.

Update on the Parking Lot Replacement and Capital Fund Drive

The St. Thomas Vestry, Finance Committee, and the newly formed Buildings and Grounds Committee have been working on projects to rebuild the parking lot, install air conditioning in the nave, restore stained glass windows, and repair deterioration in areas of the outside walls. The parking lot project has been delayed because the cities of Neenah and Menasha will probably proceed with a plan to convert the intersection in front of the church to a roundabout. This will change the intersection with Sanford St. and the driveway entrance to the front of the church. We do not want to rebuild the parking lot until we are clear about how these changes will affect our parking areas. In the meantime, the committees are working on planning for the other projects, developing more accurate cost estimates.

Parishioners have been contributing to the Capital Fund for these projects, and we greatly appreciate these early expressions of support. These contributions are being held in a separate fund for these specific projects. A more active phase of the Capital Fund Drive will begin when we have a more definite timeline for the parking lot and more specific funding needs for the other three projects.

In Christ's Name,

Brad Lauderdale, Sr. Warden & Gordon Stillings, Jr. Warden

Semi-Annual Altar Cleaning - November 14th at 9am. The Altar Guild will gather to do our semi-annual freshing and cleaning of the sanctuary and all things related. We will polish silver and brass, dust/oil the chapel altar and walls, freshen linens and whatever else we find that deems attention. If you aren't able to stay the entire two hours, please come for as long as you're able... we welcome any and all the help we can get... No need to be on the Altar Guild to join in! Feel free to invite friends, spouses, and older children if you think they may be able to help. Please contact Barb Barry (920)277-8373 or Sherry Morton (920)450-8588 with questions.

Vestry Highlights– October 2026

Fr. Andy opened with prayer, reading the prayer for the election of a bishop from the prayer book. The group discussed themes from the prayer, specifically highlighting the concept of "equipping" lay and ordained leaders for ministry, as well as the active and passive aspects of "receiving" the bishop God calls to the diocese.

Key Motions and Topics Discussed:

- Minutes: A motion was passed to approve the meeting minutes from the Sept. 14th meeting.
- Treasurer's Report: Pledge income for September was low, however, adding in prepaid pledges brings total pledge income close to the 5-year average. Church maintenance, electricity, gas, and snow plowing have met or exceeded their annual maximum budgets due to rising utility costs. A motion was passed to approve the September treasurer's report.
- Cybersecurity Insurance: Primary coverage plus diocesan coverage as a backup is determined to be sufficient, so extra coverage in not recommended.
- Tornado Relief Disbursement Threshold: Father Andy noted he has no strong need to manage large disbursements independently and welcomed Vestry participation for transparency. Motion passed for Fr. Andy to solicit Vestry input before making any single disbursement of $1500 or more from the Tornado/Storm Relief Fund.
- Diocesan Convention Delegates: Fr. Andy recommended electing delegates at the annual Meeting (rather than appointing them via the Vestry/Rector) to align with the open, transparent nature of the upcoming bishop elections process.
- Continuing Education & Travel: Fr. Andy is attending Nashotah House Alumni Day this week for connection and continuing education sessions. Following Nashotah House Fr. Andy will travel to St. Anne's (De Pere) for a regional gathering with the Bishop-in-Residence to discuss the new bishop election model.

Ministry Team Reports:

- Outreach/Missions: Steve reported our assistance to storm-affected residents in Neenah/Menasha. Double Portion is continuing to serve weekly meals. Betsy Hake is in France for mission work and preparing her second book for publication.
- Pastoral Care: Jill reported that we are currently serving communion to 11 homebound members, with 13 members on the watch list. 14 team members are trained or in training to administer home communion.

We closed the meeting in prayer and the next meeting was scheduled for November 9th.
