

Paulette Ngachoko– tuvuga Healthcare Group tuvuga Senior Advisor for International Legal and Business Affairs

Paulette Ngachoko is co-founder of the International Institute for Justice and Development (IIJD), and she has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2001. She has developed strategies and led the design and implementation of programs such as the Africa Justice Index and the African Spiders' Webs Initiative. Along with her involvement with IIJD, she worked for Bank of America where she was Compliance Risk Manager until 2009. Prior to that, Mrs. Ngachoko worked on different projects as Financial Analyst for Boston Financial Data Services, E*Trade and Prudential Insurance from 1997 to 1999.

Paulette comes to tuvuga Inc. as the Senior Advisor for International Legal and Business Affairs. Paulette is also the liaison between the THCG Advisory Members and tuvuga Inc.

Paulette Ngachoko immigrated to the United States in 1997. While living in Burkina Faso, West Africa from 1993 to 1997, she completed her law studies and subsequently worked as an Attorney. Mrs. Ngachoko was forced to leave her native Cameroon in 1993 for contributing to its people's fight for freedom and democracy through the National Coordination of Cameroonian Students and FREEDOM-NOW.

Paulette's educational background includes: an LL.M. in International Banking and Financial Law from Boston University, a D.E.S.S. (post-graduate degree) in International Business Law, a Master's degree in Law from Ouagadougou University in Burkina Faso, and a Bachelor's degree in Private Law from Yaoundé University in Cameroon. Paulette Ngachoko speaks Yemba and French fluently and has been member of the New York State Bar Association and the American Bar Association since 2001. She lives in Massachusetts with her family.