

Aminata Bintou Wahab Mbaye – Phd Student University Gaston Berger In Saint-louis, Senegal tuvuga Millennial Advisory Board

Amina is working on her PhD in Arts at University Gaston Berger of Saint-Louis.

She works actively in empowering women and giving young street children the opportunity to access education through Bridge Kids Senegal. Bridge Kids Senegal is part of Bridge Kids International, a global non-profit organization helping young people of Africa and the African diaspora to unleash their social entrepreneurial spirits to solve economic development, education, environmental, girls' rights, and health challenges.

Currently she works as Content Developer for VoLo an IT company whose vision is to build financial inclusion in Africa. Amina has strong skills in interpreting, translation, text editing, and local and international field trips management. She completed the Mandela Washington Fellowship in 2015 at the University of Delaware. She plans to continue her work in community development with a focus on children's education and the empowerment of less fortunate people.

