

Nana Yaa Misa (Naya) Medical Student George Washington University School of Medicine tuvuga Millennial Advisory Board

A 2nd year medical student at George Washington University School of Medicine & Health Sciences. “Taking Health and Science courses was a way for me to engage with medicine beyond the scope of science – that meant examining health practices, knowledge and systems in a sociocultural context.”

