Call for entries: WE PROTEST!

ONLINE EXHIBITION Sept. 28 – Nov.2 , 2020

Application Deadline: Aug. 31

No entry fee

The Mosely Gallery at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore invites artists to submit works in response to the recent national and international wave of protests around Black Lives Matter. WE PROTEST! aims to celebrate our collective rights to free speech and tie current manifestations to the long and rich history of Black activism.

Selected artwork will be exhibited on an online platform hosted by the Mosely Gallery, UMES.

Juror: Baltimore based artist and activist SHAN Wallace

Applicants must submit:

- Brief artist statement about specific works submitted
- Link to artist's website (if applicable)
- List of up to two works with short description including title, year of production and medium.
- Images/files (Jpeg 72 dpi); video/audio clips should be shared as a link to a streaming site (with password information as necessary)

Submit application packet in one email to: gallery@umes.edu
