

CBS INTERN FELLOWSHIPS

NEWS JOURNALISM, BROADCASTING, OR COMMUNICATION STUDENTS

This highly competitive program identifies outstanding aspiring journalists who bring a variety of backgrounds to news production and news coverage. The CBS News Fellowship is designed to attract candidates from a broad range of racial, ethnic, economic, age and geographical diversity, as well as candidates with disabilities.

Where can I intern?

New York. Department placement is at the sole discretion of the Director.

What are the duties?

Learn fundamental newsgathering skills, find, confirm and report news stories, log tapes, coordinate script, research stories, conduct preliminary interviews, assist during shoots, select footage, perform light clerical duties and assist staff members. Duties vary in each department.

What are the requirements?

Students who are currently attending an ACEJMC accredited journalism or communication program and who have achieved junior or senior status are eligible. Students majoring in journalism, broadcasting or communications are preferred; other majors will be considered. Participants must have good computer skills, excellent written & verbal communication abilities & knowledge of current events. A 3.0 GPA or above is recommended. Applicants must be legally authorized to work in the United States. Verification of employment eligibility will be required at the time of hire. Visa sponsorship is not available for this position.

Is this a paid position?

CBS will provide each fellow with lodging during the internship period, an hourly wage and an initial stipend to cover travel to NY. Fellows are responsible for arranging their own transportation, meals, and other expenses over the ten-week period they are in the CBS intern program.

Do I have to get college credit?

CBS News does not require students to receive college credit. Students are solely responsible for coordinating and meeting the credit requirements of their college/university.

When is the deadline?

Applications must be received by February 21 of each year.

How do I apply?

Send the application, resume, transcript, an essay about why you should be chosen as a CBS News Fellow, 3 newsworthy story pitches, 2 recommendation letters and a letter from your university confirming that you are a student working toward a degree at their accredited college and support your participation in a paid internship at CBS News to:
