Today, many of our childcare providers and volunteers cannot be here, because they will be enjoying well-deserved time with their families. We will have nursery care from 8 a.m. - 12 p.m. as usual, but we will NOT have Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. or Children's Chapel during the 10:30 a.m. service. If your child usually attends Children's Chapel and needs childcare during worship, they are welcome in the nursery.

Coffee & Connect: We will be enjoying another time of coffee and fellowship in the foyer off the Greene Street entrance directly after the 10:30 a.m. liturgy. Whether your schedule allows for five minutes or thirty, we hope you will stay a while and enjoy a cup and some conversation with fellow parishioners.

Christmas Memorials: We invite you to support our special Christmas services with a financial gift in memory or in honor of a special person in your life. Your gift will be recognized in the bulletin prepared for the Christmas liturgies. Please return your offerings by Friday, Dec. 11 in order to be included in the bulletin. You can pay online through Realm or turn it into the Church Office. Please note when paying online: if the memo line does not give you enough space, email your dedication to Jackie at Jackie@holy-trinity.com.

Christmas Angel Tree: Let us remember those around us who need a helping hand this holiday season. Take a tag off of the Angel Tree in the narthex of the church. Check the date on the tag--some gifts should be returned by Dec. 9. Return all gifts to Haywood Duke. If you have any questions, please contact Robin Farber at 336-543-4015 or robinfarber@att.net.

Advent Wreath Workshop & Dinner Dec. 2: A favorite tradition at Holy Trinity is creating live Advent wreaths to be used in our homes throughout the Advent season. This year's event will be from 5:30 – 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 2 in Haywood Duke. We will begin with pizza, salad and cookies followed by wreath making and lighting the first candle of Advent. Bring your own live greenery (to share) and clippers. Other supplies are provided. We are ordering wreath kits for 20 families at a cost of $35 per family, which includes dinner. First come, first served. If you do not wish to make an Advent wreath, you can simply pay for dinner as usual: $10/adult, $5/child 12 AND UNDER, $30 family cap. Register here: bit.ly/2026AdventWreaths.

The Greensboro Flute Choir will offer a special performance on Thursday, Dec. 3 at 7 p.m. in the Nave as part of the Richard Cox Concert Series. The Greensboro Flute Choir consists of talented flutists from the triad area. This unique ensemble includes piccolo, C flute, alto flute, bass flute, and contrabass flute. Musical styles include sacred, jazz, baroque, classical, popular and more. This choir is under the Co-Direction of Dr. Deborah Egekvist and Mrs. Elizabeth Mosher.

Annual Meeting and Vestry Elections: The annual parish meeting to elect new Vestry will be held Sunday, Dec. 6 at 9:30 a.m. during the Sunday school hour. At the meeting, the parish will hear reports from vestry officers and elect four new vestry members to replace Bob Edmunds, Mary Currie, Anne Crutchfield and David Craft, who are rotating off. While the adults meet, children and youth will gather in the Youth House to kick off special Advent Sunday school classes. They will join their families for the 10:30 a.m. worship service. Nominees to serve 2027, 2028, and 2029 include Jan Walker, David Magellan Horth, Ken Keeton, and Ted M. Oliver. Learn more about them here: bit.ly/Vestry2027.

Advent Devotional Practice: Prepare for the coming of our Lord Jesus this Advent by joining Eli Wanner on the second, third & fourth Sundays of Advent (Dec. 6, 13 & 20) from 4:30-5:45 p.m. As we anticipate God's incarnation as an infant child, and informed by the Archbishop of York's 2026 Advent book, Walking with Angels, we will bundle up and prayerfully walk through the neighborhood, holding our neighbors in prayer. Our evening will close in the warmth of the church building with a brief Advent reflection and praying Compline.

Birthdays

Watch over your beloved children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
