REMEMBRANCE DAY SUNDAY

We're so pleased that you've come to worship with us this morning. While this bulletin is a guide to the service if you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of the Anglican Church, simply relax with the liturgy and let the rest of the congregation carry you in worship. Congregational parts are printed in BOLD.

(Congregational participation in BOLD)

Prelude: Highland Cathedral (Bagpipes Ross Smith)

The Gathering

All gather in silence

God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble. Psalm 46.1

This I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:
the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning.
Lamentations 3.21-23

May God be with you
And also with you
Let us pray.

We meet in the presence of God.
We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith
for reconciliation between the nations,
that all people may, together,
live in freedom, justice and peace.
We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.
We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow
those whose lives,
in world wars and conflicts past and present,
have been given and taken away.

HYMN # 659 O Canada (Blue Book)
O Canada! Our home and native land!
True Patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
the true north, strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada
we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn.

Homily – Brad Frogatt

Prayers of the People*: Spencer Stevens*

Confession: Let us confess our sins to God.
God of mercy,
We have sinned against you, and against others.
We have sinned in what we have done,
and in what we have failed to do.
We remember that sin and division have the power to lead to violence, and to war.
We are truly sorry. For the sake of your son Jesus Christ Who died for us, and for the sins of people everywhere, Forgive us all that is past, And raise us to newness of life, Amen.

Almighty God, who pardons all who truly repent,
Forgive you your sins,
Strengthen you by the Holy Spirit,
And keep you in life eternal:
Through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer.
