PARISH FAMILY HIGHLIGHTS

OUR FIRST ALL-STAFF MEETING

On September 17, staff members of our Parish Family gathered at St. Benedict Parish Center for their first All-Staff Meeting.

They shared updates, learned more about what is happening across our Parish Family with a special focus on Partners in the Gospel, and talked about how they can better work together. They also enjoyed a meal, played a fun game, and learned some interesting things about one another.

These meetings will be held every month to keep everyone connected, informed, and working together as one team.

NEED A RIDE? HAVE AN EXTRA SEAT?

We're organizing a new Carpooling Ministry to help everyone stay connected to parish life especially older parishioners and others who are unable to drive.

If you can offer a ride or need transportation, please sign up!

bit.ly/PF14Carpool

Carpools can help parishioners attend weekday and weekend Masses, parish events, and other activities while building friendships and caring for one another along the way.

Sharing an extra seat may be a simple gesture, but it can make a meaningful difference in someone's life!

FR. PARRISH'S PASTORAL LETTER: AUTUMN EDITION

If you missed Fr. Parrish's letter in last weekend's bulletin, scan the QR code or visit the link.

bit.ly/PastorLetterAutumn

Fr. Parrish shares several exciting updates for our Parish Family this fall, including the hiring of our new Director of Pastoral Ministry, plans to celebrate ALL Sunday Masses at one location during Advent, upcoming faith formation and sacramental programs, and important liturgy and facilities updates.

Please take a moment to read the letter. For the latest Parish Family news and announcements, visit www.pf14.org.

UPCOMING EVENTS

FAMILY ADORATION

COME and ADORE.

St. John Chapel
(inside the Church)
Every Thursday
3 - 4 PM
(after school)

St. Benedict Church
Oct 8, Nov 12, Dec 10,
Jan 14, Feb 11, Mar 11,
Apr 15 & May 13
Thursday, 2:15 - 3:15 PM

You are all invited to Family Adoration! Kids, parents and caregivers are encouraged to visit Jesus for 5 minutes or more! All are welcome!

What is Adoration?
Adoration is spending quiet, personal time with Jesus, who is truly present in the Eucharist (the Blessed Sacrament) displayed in a special golden stand called a monstrance.

What can you do at Adoration?
Adoration is just like visiting your best friend. Greet Jesus, by genuflecting, then sit or kneel. You can pray silently, read the bible or prayer book, pray the rosary with the group or "just be" with Jesus.

Why should kids come to Adoration?

- Builds a Personal Relationship: It helps children realize that Jesus is real and present, transforming Him from a figure in a storybook to a friend they can visit.
- Fosters Belief in the Real Presence: Regular adoration helps children understand that the host is truly Jesus, strengthening their faith in the Eucharist.
- Learn to Pray in Silence: It offers a rare, quiet space for children to listen to God and develop a personal prayer life.
- Model Reverence: Children learn how to act in church—kneeling, bowing, and sitting in quiet, respectful adoration.
- Welcoming God's Love: Jesus welcomes children just as they are—wiggles, noises, and all—offering them a place to feel His love, joy, and peace.

CREATE YOUR OWN ROSARY!

Please note that we anticipate animals of all sizes and types and we don't wish any to be harmed. Thus, we require all dogs to either be leashed or carried in a secure dog carrier. In addition, all other animals (e.g., cats, birds, hamsters, snakes, etc.) need to be brought to the schoolyard in a secure carrier.

If you can't bring your pet in a secure carrier or if you can't control your leashed dog, please leave your pet home and bring a photo for the priest to bless.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Robert Ruffner - Saturday, October 17, 11:00 AM funeral Mass at St. Benedict. Reception to follow in the School Cafeteria.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4 - Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading — Isaiah 5:1–7
The Lord seeks a harvest of justice.

Psalm — Psalm 80
"The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel."

Second Reading — Philippians 4:6–9
Dwell in thoughts of purity and justice and you will know peace.

Gospel — Matthew 21:33–43
"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

Isaiah sings a song about a vineyard, lovingly built but then ruined and left to die. At the very end, Isaiah reveals that this is a parable and explains what the vineyard represents. Similarly, Jesus tells a parable about a wonderful vineyard that becomes the site of terrible tragedy. Again, at the end Jesus interprets the parable for the audience. May we take this opportunity to reflect on our work in the vineyard that Jesus calls us to tend. Are we producing good fruit for the Lord?

FAITH IN FOCUS

Offertory Chant

THE OFFERTORY Chant is sung at Mass while the gifts of bread and wine are brought to the altar. In parishes it sometimes has another name; for example, it may be called the Offertory Hymn or the song during the Preparation of the Gifts.

After the Prayer of the Faithful as everyone sits, the Offertory Chant begins, and it continues at least until the gifts are placed on the altar. The music accompanies the ritual action of preparing the gifts. It differs from songs like the Responsorial Psalm or the Holy, Holy, which demand full attention and accompany nothing else.

The Offertory Chant may end when the gifts are placed on the altar, or it may continue through the washing of the priest's hands. Whenever music happens throughout this time, the priest may say the formulas of blessing quietly, and the people need not make the customary response, "Blessed be God for ever."

The Offertory Chant may be sung by everyone or by the choir. The choir or a cantor may even alternate verses with the assembly. Or there may be nothing sung, and instruments may be played. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says singing may always accompany this rite (74). The words for this chant may come from psalms, antiphons, or liturgical songs.

In The Roman Missal you can always find a recommended antiphon for the Entrance and Communion. However, it contains none for the Offertory Chant. There is one for each Sunday in a book called the Graduale Romanum, but that resource is not very accessible to most parishes. Most people simply choose a song they feel fits the celebration of the day.
