Hello Church Family,

This letter is from Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ. I am writing to God’s chosen people who are living as foreigners in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia [& West Palm Beach].

God the Father knew you and chose you long ago, and His Spirit has made you holy. As a result, you have obeyed Him and have been cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ. May God give you more and more grace and peace.

All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is by His great mercy that we have been born again, because God raised Jesus Christ from the dead. Now we live with great expectation, and we have a priceless inheritance—an inheritance that is kept in heaven for you, pure and undefiled, beyond the reach of change and decay.

And through your faith, God is protecting you by His power until you receive this salvation, which is ready to be revealed on the last day for all to see.

Thank you volunteers! Your participation as a volunteer is a vital part of growing God’s Kingdom as you serve as His hands, feet, heart, and voice to the world.

Looking Up, Reaching Out, Loving, Caring, Sharing, Through God’s Amazing Grace

I am grateful for this journey we are on together. Our Bishop Ken Carter shared on Facebook blessings he wanted to share happening from a Conference level point of view. I appreciate his closing remarks and believe they translate to us here at UMCPB…

“I am only touching the surface here. Where am I going with this? We are not a perfect church. But in the midst of narratives that assume we must dissolve or divide, I want to say…

Take a deep breath. It is not your church or mine. The church is people, earthen vessels God has chosen to entrust the treasure of the gospel (2 Corinthians 4). The church is a place that gives women and men the opportunity to live out their callings.

And where we are not who we ought to be, before God, the church is a way of life that allows us to forgive and be forgiven, to speak the truth in love, be a part of each other's healing and sanctification, to share our bread in feeding the multitudes and each other, and to proclaim the word of God with the people of God. Read Bonhoeffer’s Life Together; before we complain about the church, we are called to pray for the church and build it up. The good news: this is actually happening.” AMEN.

See the invitation within this newsletter to visit together at the new parsonage with an Open House. I look forward to growing in Christ together with you.

Joyfully,
What an awesome time we had with guest praise and worship leaders this past month. We had live music and a dynamic lesson about King David. Thank you to our Amigos Joana and Gershom who introduced them to our group. In August, we are looking for a mission project to do for the Amigos’ group. If anyone has a suggestion, please contact Phyllis.

I am grateful for our dedicated volunteers who come to our Praise and Worship services and our outreach events. I could not do this ministry without your loving participation. God bless you as you are a blessing to all of our Amigos.

Reflections from Annual Conference
By Ruth Mageria, Lay Delegate, Annual Conference

The Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church was held on June 7 – 9, 2018 at Florida Southern College in Lakeland. Members from UMCPB who attended included Paul Aupperlee, Barbara Porcher, Chad Stoffel and John Harre. Rev Pam Cahoon attended as retired clergy. Our very own Rev Patti Aupperlee served as one of the two recording secretaries at the Annual Conference.

We listened to powerful messages focusing on this year’s theme, Remembering Who We Are. Speakers included Bishop Sue Haupert-Johnson, of the North Georgia Conference, Dr. Paul Chilcote, Professor of Theology at Asbury Theological Seminary in Orlando, Bishop Gregory Palmer of the West Ohio Conference and Rev. Dr. Geraldine McClellan, recently retired senior pastor at Mt. Pleasant UMC, Gainesville. We had inspirational, celebratory and beautiful times of worship led by the Eleven20 Worship Team from First UMC of Lakeland, under the leadership of Jeremy Hearn.

Florida Conference Bishop Ken Carter delivered the sermon at Saturday’s ordination service. It was such a blessing to see 62 individuals ordained, licensed or commissioned and set apart for ministry. The Bishop reminded us that this year, 2018, we gathered with a sense of History. This is the 50th anniversary of the United Methodist denomination, which was formed in 1968 in the merger of the Evangelical United Brethren and Methodist Churches.

We celebrated with 20 churches that are having milestone anniversaries this year. One marked 175 years; eight marked 150 years; six have reached 125 years; three have reached 100; one is celebrating 75 years; one is celebrating 50 years. Conference delegates approved the discontinuation of 12 churches. We thanked God for the ministry and witness of those congregations in the lives of many individuals and communities.

UMCPB was recognized as a 100% connectional church, having paid 100% of apportionments to the conference in 2017. Clergy and laity in congregations affected by Hurricane Irma were recognized, and we heard about all the recovery efforts the conference has been involved in, and the work that still needs to be done.

This year the Bishop’s offering was divided between two initiatives. ZOE Ministries empowers children and youth living in poverty, in seven countries, spanning 3 continents to become self-reliant by investing in local indigenous leaders. Training Laity and Clergy in innovative forms of evangelism so that churches across the conference engage with their communities in new and exciting ways.

A powerful session for me at Annual Conference was when delegates participated in Point Of View Conversations. The POV conversation is designed to equip participants to grow in empathy, have a broader understanding of different points of view and to create a generative dialogue around challenging conversations. POV gatherings give participants space to develop empathy and trust in conversations that can be divisive including Human Sexuality, Race Relations, Immigration, Healthcare etc. One of the Adult Sunday School classes here at UMCPB is piloting the POV. We will be hearing more about this in days to come.

I was grateful for times of reflection, singing, dancing, praising, praying, powerful messages, listening to & respecting one another (even when our points of view differed), reconnecting with old friends making new friends, encouraging one another, breaking bread together, and celebrating the connectional nature of the United Methodist Church and the diversity represented in the Florida Conference.

Complete coverage of this year’s annual conference event is available at www.flumc.org. Full ministry reports are included in the 2018 Annual Conference Workbook at www.flumc.org/annual-conference-2018.

11 Ways God Works for Us

Article by John Piper
Founder & Teacher, desiringGod.org

Only a few things have gripped me with greater joy than the truth that God loves to show his God-ness by working for me, and that His working for me is always before and under and in any working I do for him.

At first it may sound arrogant of us, and belittling to God, to say that He works for us. But that’s only because of the connotation that I am an employer and God needs a job. That’s not the connotation when the Bible talks about God’s working for us. As in: “God works for those who wait for him” (Isaiah 64:4).

The proper connotation of saying God works for me is that I am bankrupt and need a bailout. I am weak and need someone strong. I am endangered and need a protector. I am foolish and need someone wise. I am lost and need a Rescuer.

"God works for me" means I can’t do the work. And this glorifies Him not me. The Giver gets the glory. The Powerful One gets the praise.

“No eye has seen a God besides you, who works for those who wait for him.” (Isaiah 64:4)
“God is not served by human hands as though he needed anything, but he himself gives life and breath and everything.” (Acts 17:25)
“The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45).
“The eyes of the LORD run through the earth, to show himself strong for those who trust him.” (2 Chronicles. 16:9)
“If I were hungry, I wouldn't tell you. Call on me, I will deliver you. You will glorify me.” (Psalm 50:15)
“To old age I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.” (Isaiah 46:4)
“Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.” (Psalm 127:1)
“Whoever serves, let him serve by the strength God supplies, so that in everything God may be glorified.” (1 Peter 4:11)

Work out your own salvation, for it is God who works in you, to will and to work.” (Philippians 2:12–13)
“I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.” (1 Corinthians 3:6–7)

How is God working for you?
How important is it to share how He is working?

If you don't see or feel Him working you need to check yourself.

How important is being connected and making it a priority to connect yourself with other Christian men!
What opportunities do you have and take?

My experience in seeing God at work for me has been top of the heap right now.
I recognize it more because I am sharing what He is doing and I have the opportunity to do that with small groups.

Some small groups work some have not.
It is important to keep searching for the right group or start one.
It isn't hard. All it takes is being committed to it.
If you are interested in starting a small group email me at: umcpb.ironmen@gmail.com

So? How is God working for you?

Dear Members of UMCPB,

Thank you for your financial assistance toward Seminary at Duke Divinity School. Jill and I are eager to go where God is leading us and take this next step of faith.

UMCPB will always be our home church in Florida. Our family spent eleven years growing and serving in ministry there and my decision to pursue ordained ministry was largely influenced by the guidance, encouragement, and relationships we formed during that time.

During my time in seminary, I will be serving a small local church in Sophia, North Carolina as a Student Pastor, and anticipate returning to the Florida Conference upon completion of my Masters of Divinity.

Jill and I love and are grateful for each one of you, and covet your prayers for this next season in our journey. We thank God every time we remember you, (Philippians 1:3). Thank you for your encouragement and support.

Our address is North Carolina is 1017 Commonwealth Road, Randleman, N.C. 27317. We would love to hear from you.

Blessings,
Steve & Jill Bergkamp
