HUE CONVERSATIONS

LEARN HOW TO APPLY AN INCLUSIVE FRAMEWORK FOR ENGAGEMENT, COLLABORATION, AND DISCOVERY RESULTING IN A SHARED APPRECIATION AND UNDERSTANDING THAT DRIVES TEAMS TO BETTER-INFORMED DECISIONS AND ACTIONS

This 1-day course is an introduction to fundamentals of human decision-making process and group dynamics. Participants will learn a practical, structured, and easy-to-apply method to facilitate groups with diverse ideas. The results: deepened understanding, engagement, and collective decisions that move into action. HUE Conversations allows leaders to effectively establish trust with the group and create environments where the goal is to reach a shared understanding, include diverse perspectives, and learn from the experiences each person brings to the discussion.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Foundational values of authentic engagement
- HUE™ Conversations Method
- Tips and techniques to deal with various human dynamics
- How to lead a meaningful conversation that accomplishes the desired outcomes
- How to ask thoughtful questions

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- More easily gather diverse perspectives via inclusive communication and feedback/input sessions
- Increase morale as employees feel listened to and respected
- Engage and motivate staff and team members while raising individual and group accountability
- Save time and money as a result of increased productivity
- Gain higher engagement, motivation, and greater results from teams

COURSE DETAILS

Visit our website at Hue.Life for all upcoming public courses or email info@hue.life to schedule a private in-house course