

Ladies Casting for Conservation Tournament

The 5th Annual Ladies Casting for Conservation Tournament will be held on Saturday, July 22nd at Stingaree. Ladies Casting for Conservation is a women's one-day fishing tournament held in Crystal Beach, Texas on Bolivar Peninsula. This unique event brings together fishing enthusiasts and helps protect Galveston Bay's natural resources. Now in its fifth year, the tournament has drawn interest from anglers throughout the state. This tournament is for everyone, from those fishing for the first time to those that know how to reel in a big catch! It's a day of fun and an opportunity to learn about Galveston Bay. Both guided teams and non-guided teams are eligible.

REGISTER HERE

Participants enjoy a day of competitive fishing that benefits Galveston Bay Foundation (GBF) in its efforts to preserve and protect Galveston Bay. Founded in 1987, GBF is a non-profit conservation organization that works to preserve, protect, and enhance the natural resources of the Galveston Bay estuarine system through its programs in education, conservation, advocacy, and research.