November at a Glance

What's New?

As we prepare for the transition into our new building, we have been busy planning, preparing, and praying over these new classrooms! We are so excited for this new space and the opportunities it will bring to love on little ones, teach them about Jesus, and plant seeds of truth in their hearts. We can't wait to see these rooms filled with little faces learning about our great God!

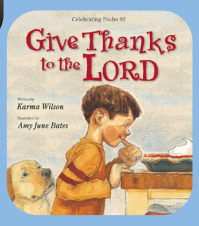
Resources & Highlights

Here are our recommended resources for October:

Song: "Doxology/Oh, Shout for Joy" by Keith and Kristen Getty (Getty Kids Hymnal: Family Hymn Sing)

Podcast: Real Cool History- "The Pilgrims and the First Thanksgiving"



Book: Give Thanks to the Lord- Celebrating Psalm 92 by Karma Wilson
In this heartwarming story that references Psalm 92 Karma Wilson tells a story about the Thanksgiving holiday from the point of view of one young member of an extended family, Give Thanks to the Lord celebrates all the joys of the autumn holiday.

Sunday Check In & Check Out

Please check your child in at the Self CheckIn Station in Room 1, then drop them off in their classroom. K–4th grade students will begin the morning in Room 7.

Check your child out at their grade level classroom. Don't forget your security sticker!

Families with Infants–Preschool AND Kindergarten–4th Grade:
Please pick up your Kindergarten–4th grade child first. Once you have picked up your older child, you may head down the hall to pick up your younger child.

For the safety of all children, please always exit through the main lobby doors.
All other doors will remain closed.
