2026 General Election Political Program

Election Results Report

Results of the 2026 August primary and November 3 general election for every candidate endorsed by the ABC Florida East Coast Chapter, with the endorsed slate and race-by-race registration, opponent and result detail

Government and Political Affairs Department
Legislative Committee | November 16, 2026

Election results are election-night returns from the Florida Division of Elections and county Supervisors of Elections with 100 percent of precincts reporting. CD 27 (FL-27) and HD 33 reflect the machine recounts completed November 10, 2026.

2026 General Election Results

The chapter's endorsed candidates won 40 of 54 races this cycle, 74 percent, counting the four endorsees elected in the August primary; on November 3 they won 36 of 50 contested races (72 percent). The full statewide ticket won, all six endorsed senators won, and 15 of the 22 endorsed House candidates won. The losses were concentrated in Palm Beach and Broward House seats and in four South Florida congressional races, in a year when every statewide race was decided by three points or less. Two races went to machine recounts; both confirmed the election-night winner.

Scorecard

Level	Endorsed	Won	Lost	Win rate

The race-by-race results are in the slate tables that follow, which now show each endorsee's result and share of the vote, and at the top of every entry in the race-by-race detail at the back of this report.

What the Results Show

All three Miami-Dade senators held their seats, and two of the races were close. Senator Garcia won SD 36 by 1,672 votes (50.6 to 49.4), Senator Calatayud won SD 38 by 1,576 votes (49.5 to 48.7) and Senator Rodriguez won SD 40 by 19,933 votes. Vicki Lopez won the County Commission District 5 runoff with 60.5 percent.

The best result of the night was HD 87. Jon Maples took back the seat Democrats won in the March special, defeating Representative Emily Gregory by 1,052 votes. Anthony Bonna won the open HD 85 seat by 782 votes, and Marci Woodward held Palm Beach County Commission District 4 by 1,127.

The coastal Palm Beach and Broward House seats went Democratic. Anne Gerwig (HD 93), Meg Weinberger (HD 94), Yoni Anijar (HD 100), Hillary Cassel (HD 101) and Mery Lopez-Palma (HD 102) all lost, as did Bruno Barreiro in HD 113 in Miami. The same corridor produced the FL-22 and FL-25 losses at the top of the ballot.

Both machine recounts, completed November 10, confirmed the election-night result. Representative Salazar kept FL-27 by 1,086 votes, 124,519 to 123,433, and Representative

Monique Miller lost HD 33 to Daniel McDow by 286 votes, 36,142 to 36,428. Representative Diaz-Balart won FL-26 by 1,772 votes (0.77 percent), outside the recount threshold.

How the Chapter Compared Statewide

ABC of Florida's published general election endorsements (abcflorida.com/politics) cover the five statewide races, 18 Senate seats and 83 House seats; the state list does not include federal races, and it notes that it does not reflect chapter decisions in county commission and school board races. All five statewide endorsees won. Of the 97 legislative endorsees who faced a November opponent, 77 won, 79 percent. Three more (HD 13 Audrey Gibson, HD 44 Rita Harris and HD 54 Randy Maggard) had no November contest, and the HD 40 endorsee, Nate Robertson, was not on the November ballot.

Regions are grouped by the counties each district covers. Districts that touch the chapter's eight counties are counted as East Coast territory, including SD 8 and HD 30, which also take in Volusia. Results are unofficial, 100 percent of precincts reporting.

The chapter's territory was the second-hardest terrain in the state. Endorsed legislators in the East Coast territory won 23 of 30 (77 percent), against 54 of 67 (81 percent) in the rest of the state. Only Central Florida did worse, at 10 of 18, where six suburban Orange and Seminole House seats and Senator Brodeur's SD 10 were lost. The pattern is the same in both places: Republican losses came in metropolitan, high-NPA suburban seats, the Orlando suburbs and the Palm Beach and Broward coast. The Panhandle went 7 for 7, the Northeast 8 for 9 and Tampa Bay and Southwest Florida 29 for 33.

In the Senate, the territory was perfect. All eight ABC endorsees in Senate districts touching the chapter's counties won, against eight of ten elsewhere; the two statewide Senate losses were Brodeur in SD 10 and Tomkow in SD 14.

The chapter's card and the state list agree in every legislative race in the territory. The state list adds three endorsements the chapter did not carry on its card, all of whom won: Senator Jake Johansson (SD 8, Brevard and Volusia), Senator Rosalind Osgood (SD 32, Broward) and Representative Dana Trabulsy (HD 84, St. Lucie). The chapter's card adds what the state list leaves out: nine federal endorsements (five won) and nine county commission and school board races (six won), plus four local endorsees elected in the August primary.

The Endorsed Slate

The committee endorsed 54 candidates this cycle: five statewide offices, nine congressional seats, six Senate seats, 22 House seats and twelve county offices, of which 50 were contested on November 3. The slate is bipartisan, with four endorsed Democrats and five nonpartisan school board and county candidates. Four endorsements, Rob Feltner for Brevard County Commission District 4, Erica Whitfield for Palm Beach County Commission District 2, Mitch Rosenwald for House District 98 and John McGovern for Palm Beach County School Board District 6, were decided in the August primary and are listed in their own table. The tables below give each race's November 3 ballot and the endorsee's result and share of the vote.

Results are election-night returns with 100 percent of precincts reporting, with recount totals for FL-27 and HD 33; the percentage is the endorsee's share of the vote. Nonpartisan races are shown by candidate name.

Ballot, party registration and the November 3 result for every endorsed race

How to Read the Race Entries

Each entry gives the November 3 ballot, the result, and party registration for the district as of the July 20, 2026 book closing (Florida Division of Elections): REP, DEM and NPA counts with their share of the district, minor-party and other registrants, the total, and the Republican-minus-Democratic margin. For county seats where the Supervisor of Elections does not publish a district split, the countywide figure is shown and labeled.

Statewide and Federal Races

U.S. Senate (special) – Ashley Moody (R), incumbent

Opponents: Angie Nixon (D), Neil J. Gillespie (NPA). 2022 result for the seat: Rubio 57.7–41.3. 2024 presidential, statewide: Trump +13.1.

RESULT: WON Ashley Moody 50.87%, Angie Nixon (D) 47.99%; margin +238,733 votes (2.89%). Neil Gillespie (NPA) 1.14%. Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.

Governor – Byron Donalds / Bryan Ávila (R)

Opponents: David Jolly / Gwen Graham (D), Scott Jewett (LPF), five NPA tickets and two write-in tickets. 2022 result: DeSantis 59.4–40.0. Open seat; DeSantis term-limited.

RESULT: WON Byron Donalds / Bryan Ávila 50.02%, David Jolly / Gwen Graham (D) 48.71%; margin +107,695 votes (1.30%). Six minor tickets 1.27%. Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.

Attorney General – James Uthmeier (R), incumbent

Opponent: José Javier Rodríguez (D), former state senator. Uthmeier was appointed in February 2025; no primary in either party.

RESULT: WON James Uthmeier 50.93%, José Javier Rodríguez (D) 49.07%; margin +153,338 votes (1.87%). Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.

Chief Financial Officer – Blaise Ingoglia (R), incumbent

Opponent: Annette Taddeo (D), former state senator and 2022 congressional nominee. Ingoglia won the August primary over Joe Gruters.

RESULT: WON Blaise Ingoglia 50.94%, Annette Taddeo (D) 49.06%; margin +153,647 votes (1.89%). Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.

Commissioner of Agriculture – Wilton Simpson (R), incumbent

RESULT: WON Wilton Simpson 51.08%, Joey Mendoza Atkins (D) 48.92%; margin +175,956 votes (2.16%). Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.

Congressional redistricting. The Legislature adopted a new congressional map on April 29, 2026 (signed May 4) and it is in effect for this election after the Florida Supreme Court declined an emergency challenge on June 10. The changes matter most for FL-25, which is now a coastal district running from Boca Raton through Fort Lauderdale to Miami Beach and voted Trump +9 in 2024, and for FL-26, whose presidential margin fell from +35 to +18 after it dropped Collier County and picked up part of Pembroke Pines. FL-8 dropped Indian River County and added part of Orange County; FL-21 gained Indian River County.

FL-8 – Mike Haridopolos (R), incumbent

Opponent: Jennifer Jenkins (D). 2024 result: Haridopolos 62.2–37.8. 2024 presidential (new lines): Trump +16.1.

RESULT: WON Mike Haridopolos 53.17%, Jennifer Jenkins (D) 46.83%; margin +20,277 votes (6.35%). Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.

FL-20 – Brent Andersen (R)

Opponents: Debbie Wasserman Schultz (D), sitting congresswoman who moved from the old FL-25; Kedner Maxime (Independent Party). Seat vacant since Rep. Cherfilus-McCormick resigned April 21, 2026.

RESULT: LOST Brent Andersen 21.74%, Debbie Wasserman Schultz (D) 74.36%; margin −129,193 votes (52.62%). Kedner Maxime (IND) 3.91%. Unofficial, 100% of precincts reporting.
