Dear Memorial and Wheelock Families,

I am excited to announce that Kevin Madden has been selected as the next Principal of Wheelock School replacing Holli Caulfield who is retiring at the end of this school year. Mr. Madden brings over two decades of experience in elementary education, including more than 15 years as a principal, and is widely recognized for his dedication to fostering inclusive, collaborative, and high-achieving school communities.

Since 2011, Mr.Madden has served as the Principal of Cottage Street School in Sharon, MA. Under his leadership, the school has developed initiatives that emphasize both academic excellence and the importance of positive social emotional growth. His deep commitment to building strong relationships with students, staff, and families has been a hallmark of his leadership.

Kevin's educational background reflects his passion for excellence in teaching and learning. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education and Human Development from Boston College, a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction with a focus on Literacy from Lesley University, and a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study in Educational Leadership from Bridgewater State College.

I would also like to extend a special thank you to the members of the search committee for their time, dedication, and thoughtful contributions throughout the selection process. Thank you to Michelle Kirkby, Amanda Macbeth, Sophia Viglas, Seema Patel, Elizabeth Rumul, Marissa Foley, Marissa Kelleher, Brendan Pedersen, Nicole Sheehan, Erin Watson, Missy Bilsborough, Steve Grenham, Mary Bruhl, and Christine Power. Your commitment to finding the best leader for Wheelock School is greatly appreciated.

We are thrilled to welcome Mr. Madden to the Medfield community and we will provide opportunities for families to meet him prior to the start of school in August.

Sincerely,
Jeff Marsden
