Bishop's Reflection

Examination of the Candidate

Bishop Kae: Dori, every Christian is called to discipleship and service through the power of the Holy Spirit. God now calls you to a distinct ministry of service. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are to serve all people, particularly the poor, the weak, the sick and the lonely.

As a deacon in the Church, you are to study the Holy Scriptures, to seek nourishment from them, and to model your life upon them. You are to make the redemptive love of Christ known by your word and example to those among whom you live, work, and worship.

You are to interpret to the Church the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world. You are to assist the bishop and priests in public worship and in celebration of God's Word and Sacraments.

Let us pause in silence for a moment as Dori prepares to declare before the people of God her intention to undertake this office. Dori, please declare before the people of God your intention to undertake this office.

Prostration

Bishop Kae: My dear people, together with the Church Universal let us pray, that our Beloved Creator, may pour out abundant blessings on Dori as she serves the People of God and the ECC as deacon.

And as we pray for the intercession of the saints, we will pass Dori's cross from hand to hand for the blessing of the saints present in this room

Bishop Kae: This Book of the Gospels is the sign of your charge to proclaim God's word and to assist in the ministration of God's holy sacraments. Dori, receive the Word of God whose herald you are. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach.
