

SOUTHEAST TRIBAL COURT

SERIES II TRAINING

Tlingit & Haida's Tribal Court will be hosting a Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) training and Tribal Code workshop for Southeast Alaska tribes September 25-28, 2017 in Juneau, Alaska. The VAWA training is designed to build community capacity for addressing domestic violence in Southeast Alaska's communities and the Tribal Code Workshop, hosted by BIA, will assist tribes in developing tribal laws, codes, ordinances, court rules, and policies and procedures. The regional target audience for the trainings include tribal council members, tribal judges, tribal administrators, and program staff and community members who serve or work for a Southeast Alaska tribe or Native organization. Travel and training scholarships for the VAWA training are available for up to three representatives from each Southeast Alaska community under a grant received from the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), Tribal Justice Support, Office of Justice Services.
