Stoktoberfest draws crowd to downtown

Above: A crowd strolls through the goods market featuring a variety of vendors during Stoktoberfest at the Stock and Grain Assembly hosted by Visit High Point recently. The family-friendly event also featured live Bavarian polka music, authentic German-inspired foods and a biergarten with more than 30 beers from more than 10 North Carolina-based breweries. Right: Members of the Holzhackern Tyrolean Band perform Bavarian polka music for guests.

Photos by LAURA GREENE | HPE