Unity Fest returns to Washington Street

Above: The Washington Street Community Association held its 16th annual Unity Festival on Saturday on Washington Street. The event was filled with live entertainment, local food, small business and organization vendors, and lots of fun and activities for people of all ages.
Right: Members of the Carolina Soul Band entertain the crowd with their classic rhythm and blues, Motown and beach music at Saturday's 16th annual Unity Festival.

LAURA GREENE | HPE

