Jazz singer Wright to perform Thursday in High Point

BY ENTERPRISE STAFF

HIGH POINT — Jazz and gospel singer Lizz Wright will perform Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the High Point Theatre, 220 E. Commerce Ave.

Lizz Wright

Wright, whose professional music career spans more than two decades, draws inspiration from her Southern upbringing in Georgia, where she was the musical director of the small church where her father was the pastor.

At 22, she made a name for herself as a vocalist with a touring concert tribute to Billie Holiday. At 23, she released her debut album, "Salt," which topped Billboard's contemporary jazz charts. Since then she released the albums "Dreaming Wide Aware" (2005), "The Orchard" (2008), "Fellowship" (2010) and "Freedom & Surrender" (2016), which featured the single "Lean In," and "Grace" (2017).

Her newest recording is "Shadow," released in 2024.

Tickets for Wright's concert range from $42 to $90 and can be purchased online at highpointtheatre.com or by calling the theater box office at 336-887-3001.
