Families enjoy inaugural Kids Fest

Kids have fun chasing after giant bubbles created by Steve Langley with Soap Bubble Circus at Sunday's Kid Fest event hosted by the High Point Public Library and held at the High Point Athletic Complex. The first-ever Kids Fest featured live entertainment, local arts and cultural groups, family friendly games and interactive stations. | LAURA GREENE | HPE