HPU holds annual veterans event

BY ENTERPRISE STAFF

HIGH POINT — High Point University will honor hundreds of military veterans during its 16th annual Veterans Day Celebration at 8 a.m. Friday.

Dondi E. Costin

The program is free and open to all veterans and the public. The event will be in the Nido and Mariana Qubein Arena and Conference Center.

Liberty University President Dondi E. Costin, a retired major general, will join HPU President Nido Qubein on stage as a featured speaker.

Costin served in the military for more than 30 years, culminating in him being appointed a senior leader at the Pentagon. He served as the 18th Air Force chief of chaplains. After retiring from the military, he was president of Charleston Southern University for five years. He began his tenure as Liberty's president in July 2023.

This year's Veterans Day program will include a complimentary breakfast.
