HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY

HAGHGOO'S HAT TRICK LIFTS WOMEN'S SOCCER

HIGH POINT — A huge performance from Sabba Haghgoo keyed High Point University past Charleston Southern 6-1 in Big South Conference women's soccer Wednesday at Vert Stadium.

Haghgoo, a junior forward, had three goals and an assist for the Panthers (5-8-2 overall, 4-2-1 conference), who moved past Radford into third place in the conference.

Haghgoo scored in the 18th, 25th and 30th minutes to give High Point a 3-1 lead into halftime after it trailed in the ninth minute.

Brooker Potter, Sophie Redner and Morgan Wilcox each had a goal, while Aubrey Bally, Ally Ruiz, Wilcox and Kasey Resker each had an assist. Nylah Mirshafiei (three saves) and Kylee Williams (one save) shared time in goal.

The Panthers will host Winthrop Saturday at 4 p.m. to end the regular season. The six-team conference tournament will begin Thursday, Nov. 5, at the higher seeds. The top two seeds will receive a bye into the semifinals Nov. 10.