THINGS TO LOOK FORWARD TO

Speaker – Sue Gannon

Our speaker will be Sue Gannon. Her focus will be “A Radical Restoration”

Crafts -- There are three projects this year. Please pre-register for these crafts on your registration form so we know how many women are planning to participate in these sessions.

- ✂ Jewelry Making – Inga Mountain returns again this year to lead you in making a piece of wearable art. ($5 cost to be paid at camp to the instructor(s)).
- ✂ Card Techniques - Linda Barnum will be leading the women in crafting a card. ($5 is the cost to be paid at camp to the instructor).
- ✂ Book Markers – Carol-Joyce Anton will lead in crafting a bookmark to place in your favorite book or in your Bible. ($5 is the cost to be paid at camp to the instructor).

Special Interest Sessions

- ☆ Blanket Project – This is a group activity for those interested. You will be assembling the 7 X 9 pieces that you have been crocheting and knitting. Please bring crochet hooks size 5 to 7 plus large eyed needles to sew them together. Bring as many pieces to camp as you can.
- ☆ Campfire – This year Sharon Flaten will lead us in a fun time of stories, singing and fellowship around the campfire.
- ☆ Bible Studies – Led by Nancy Fittery

Ongoing Activities

- ☆ Table Games – Lynda Jensen will coordinate this activity at any free time during Women’s Camp. These games are always a great way to relax and socialize.
 - ☆ Book Swap Table – Bring one or two books to exchange for ones you have not read. Children’s books are welcome, too.
 - ☆ Joy Bookstore will have a display of items for sale.
 - ☆ Serv – There will be items set up for purchase at camp
 - ☆ Camp Store will open for purchase of camp items.
 - ☆ Swimming
 - ☆ Canoe & Boating
 - ☆ Miniature Golf
 - ☆ Hiking/Walking
 - ☆ Climbing Wall
