THINGS TO LOOK FORWARD TO

Speaker – Doris Abdullah

An Ordained International Pastor at the Brooklyn First Church of the Brethren and a Church of the Brethren United Nations Representative, will be speaking on the theme, "Who is Your Neighbor?". Her scripture text is Luke 10:29-37.

Crafts -- There are two projects this year. Please pre-register for these crafts on your registration form and include payment in your total payment for the weekend. Money will NOT be collected at camp.

- Ornament Making - Carol Joyce-Anton will lead in crafting Christmas Ornaments. The cost is $5.00. This craft will be offered Monday morning and Monday afternoon.
- Jewelry Making – Inga Mountain joins us to lead in the making of a piece of wearable jewelry. The cost is $5.00. This activity will be offered on Tuesday morning.

Special Interest Sessions

- Campfire on Monday night.
- Bible Studies on Monday & Tuesday morning led by Gloria Torres.

Ongoing Activities

- Table Games – Lynda Jensen will coordinate this activity at any free time during Women's Camp. These games are always a great way to relax and socialize.
 - Book Swap Table – Bring one or two books to exchange for ones you have not read. Children's books are welcome, too.
 - Joy Bookstore will have a display of items for sale.
 - Camp Store will open for purchase of camp items.
 - Swimming/Water Aerobics
 - Canoe & Boating
 - Miniature Golf
 - Hiking/Walking
 - Climbing Wall – please note there is a $5.00 charge for this activity. Please pre-register on the registration form and include payment.
