Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake

Come join IPC for a very special event on Thursday May 4th at 7pm! We will be hosting a private screening of historian Anthony Cohen's film "Rooted Wisdom: Nature's Role in the Underground Railroad" and hear about the perilous journey slaves took in search of liberation. The film is a guided experience that navigates through Adkins Arboretum on Maryland's Eastern Shore, brining history alive in the landscape you see today. This film viewing in its entirety will only be available to those attending so don't miss this event!

Register HERE!

Guest Speakers and Special Performance:

Linda Harris - Director of the Harriet Tubman Museum will be taking us on an in-depth look into the life of Harriet Tubman and speak about the perilous journey she took to bring enslaved people to freedom. A journey she took herself starting at the Underground Railroad trail in Cambridge all the way to the Freedom House in Philadelphia.

David Cole - Featured Musician who will mesmerize the audience with his performance of "Follow the Drinking Gourd" a code song used to help freedom seekers find their way north.

We will also hear from Damika Baker-Wilson and her intricate role in seeing this film come to fruition!

Save the date and share with friends! We look forward to seeing you there!!

These webinars are supplemental to IPC's Faithful Green Leaders Training Program but open to all. To learn more click on the links or visit our website.

With Gratitude

Sarah Redden
http://www.interfaithchesapeake.org/

Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake · PO Box 6791, Annapolis, MD 21401, United States
This email was sent to rabbimichael@columbiajewish.org. To stop receiving emails, click here.