Braver Angels
"Reuniting America" Movie Night Dec 1st
At Westminster Unitarian Church,
119 Kenyon Avenue, East Greenwich

Because of polarizing beliefs and actions, today we are deeply divided in our political beliefs.. This division hurts our ability to work together, to find cooperative solutions, and to even maintain friendships with people who think differently.

SEEJ would like to invite you to participate in one action that will help open channels of communication and make it possible to have better relationships with people on different sides of the political divide. Please join us on Friday, Dec 1 at 6:30 PM for a group viewing and discussion of the documentary, "Braver Angels Reuniting America."

This documentary was produced by Braver Angels, a not-for-profit organization that is dedicated to fostering positive dialogue among people with different views and reducing the "affective" polarization - the emotions and attitudes that keep us apart.

Please join us! We will have an enlightening viewing, a lively discussion, good fellowship, and leave with stronger relationships and ideas for how to move our country forward.
Please register for the free tickets on Eventbright here: (or just come if you haven't already registered)

Agreements for Braver Angels Discussions:

We state our views freely and fully, without fear.
We treat people who disagree with us with honesty, dignity and respect.
We welcome opportunities to engage those with whom we disagree.
We believe all of us have blind spots and none of us are not worth talking to.
We seek to disagree accurately, avoiding exaggeration and stereotypes.
We look for common ground where it exists and, if possible, find ways to work together.
We believe that, in disagreements, both sides share and learn.
In Braver Angels, neither side is teaching the other or giving feedback on how to think or say things differently.
